All the rats in the Ophir and Consolidated Virginia mines were killed by the gas during the late fire, and not one is to be seen now in either mine. Rats take the same place in the mines that the Pintes do on top. They eat up the scraps of bread, meat, etc., that are thrown away by the miners, and which if left lying around would make the air very impure. Their presence is therefore a blessing, and it is very seldom that one of them is molested by any of the miners. any of the miners.

HISTS TO YOUNG MEN.—Always have a book within your reach, which you may eatch up at your odd minutes. Remay eatch up at your odd minutes. Resolve to edge in a little reading overy day, if it is but a single sentence. If you can give fifteen minutes a day, it will be felt at the end of the year. Regulate your thoughts when not at study. A man is thinking even while at work. Let him think well.

A country editor says, "See our in-side for interesting matter." We won't do it. The accumulated contents of a country editor's inside would reveal little but pumpkin pie and salt pork. This may be interesting matter to him,
